ALPHA GEFSI

DIPS & SPREADS

GREEK TRADITIONAL DIPS & SPREADS

Alpha Gefsi established in 1998, located in Northern Greece under Mount Olympus. It is specialised in the production both of traditional and gourmet dips out of the finest local supplies. Company's goal is to make extremely tasty Mediterranean delicacies that represent the (ancient) Greek gastronomy at its best.

From the beginning, Alpha Gefsi managed to distinguish itself from the competition by its superior tasting. There are being followed exclusive recipes that are based on Greek tradition and at the same time meet the new eating trends of the market. Alpha Gefsi make use of a selection of high-end ingredients that are individually tested before they are blended, in order to offer a unique taste. They can be combined perfectly with all kinds of meals and appetisers, however most commonly they are served by a breadstick or a piece of pita bread to dip in and enjoy a yum-y quick snack!

Greece has been known around the world from its lovely variety of foods, such as Feta Cheese PDO, Greek Yoghurt, Extra Virgin olive oil, etc. Alpha Gefsi developed this "thesaurus" of Greece, and created more than 20 delicious dips and spreadable products based only on local suppliers.

Demand of spreadable products has been increasing steadily the last few years and Alpha Gefsi under its brand is already supplying massively the Biggest Super Market chains across Greece and other European countries. Extending the product shelf-life up to 6 months and by participating to international foods shows such as Anuga, Sial, etc. allowed to expand to N.America, Asia and other 3rd countries as well.

The production unit works in compliance of international organisations assuring quality and safety of its products. Available certifications: BRC, IFS & ISO.
